ENUTRACO 2011

International forum for the exchange of practical and scientific information on nutrition and training of horses

October 12, 2011

Wednesday

- 12:30 Clinical cases where nutrition played a role.
Manfred Coenen (Germany)
- 14:15 Practical news about the nutrition of breeding mares, stallions and foals published in scientific literature between 2009–2011.
Geraldine Blanchard (France)
- 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:45 What apes teach us about nutrition.
Sabrina Krief (France)
- 18:15 Welcome reception (until about 20:00 hours)

During "A bit of Paris" you will have dinner on the Seine on board of a magical boat. The tour will lead you through the heart of historical Paris in a warm and romantic setting. All dishes of the menu are very good, and you will have quite a hard time to choose a plate of the starter, of the main dish, the cheeses and the dessert before cruising!

On the 14th at "Another bit of Paris" you will be taken on a special walk along the river, hear about Paris' love stories and the medieval heritage, stand on the most romantic bridges where time stops, get to know the revolution pathway and much more.

We have had to sign a paper certifying that participants will be informed about the danger of falling in love with Paris and never again leaving! Our guide will be a native Parisian who knows what it's like to live in Paris — and will give us the master tip on where to dine after the walk (everybody pays for her/his consumption)!

Wednesday's program is credited by the Academy of Veterinary Surgeons (ATF) in Germany with 5 hours of CPD
